AGENDA

Thursday, May 27, 3:00pm – 5:00pm ET

Welcome
Cindy Marten, Deputy Secretary of the U.S. Department of Education

Guidance for Safe Summer Programs

Using American Rescue Plan Funds to Support Summer Learning
U.S. Department of Education

Summer Learning & Enrichment: Our Path Forward
Danielle Smith, U.S. Department of Education

TOPOCAL TABLETOP CONVERSATIONS

Each tabletop conversation will include a short presentation and facilitated discussion on the related topic. Discussants will highlight best practices for equity-driven approaches that meet the needs of students most impacted by the pandemic, describe evidence-based strategies for summer learning and enrichment, and spotlight successful partnership models.

Tabletop Conversations

1. Tribal Consultations: Building a Foundation for Partnership
   National Comprehensive Center; Muscogee (Creek) Nation TEA, Oklahoma; and Montana’s Tribal Relations and Resiliency

2. Fiscal Transparency: SEA and LEA Expenditures for Summer Learning and Beyond
   National Comprehensive Center

3. Working Together: Recruiting, Training and Supporting Staff Members for Impactful Summer Learning
   Pittsburgh Public Schools and Pittsburgh Learning Collaborative

4. Powerful Interventions: The Evidence for Incorporating High-Dosage Tutoring in Summer Programs
   Annenberg National Student Support Accelerator

5. Reaching the Hard-to-Reach: Engaging Homeless Children and Families in Summer Programs
   U.S. Department of Education; National Comprehensive Center; National Center for Homeless Education; and SchoolHouse Connection

6. In It Together: Maximizing Partnerships between Education and Workforce to Support High School Students
   U.S. Department of Labor